Convenor's Report

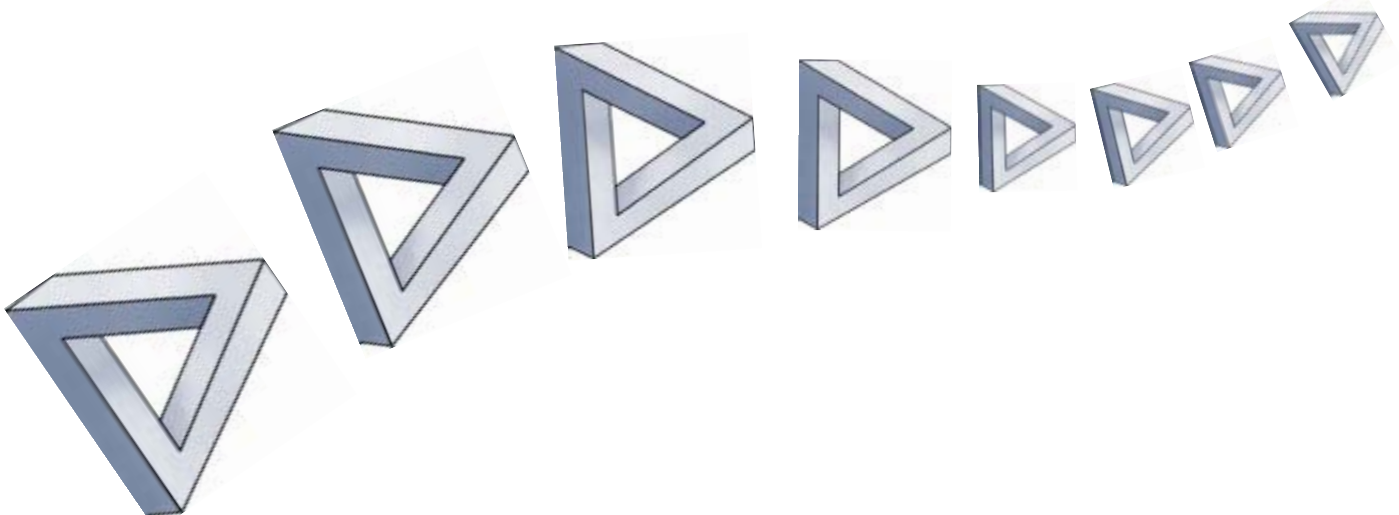

Welcome to the final Progress Report for SwanCon 32: Inconceivable! It's been a long trip, but we're finally on the home stretch. However, just to give the committee a few more things to deal with, we're running another event - the Guests' Dinner - at a fantastic Indian restaurant called the Cinnamon Club in Leederville. Check out page 5 for more details.

Due to the fabulous response to my report last time about rooms at the All Seasons Perth, I'm happy to report that all rooms are now booked. If you are only thinking of staying for one or two nights, you may still be able to find a room, as there are a few that aren't booked for the entire weekend. This also means we have the entire hotel to ourselves, so we'll be spreading out a little into the common areas.

As we're filling this Progress Report with the almost-final programme and a bit of official information, I'll keep this report short and sweet. However, I would like to take the opportunity to thank Tom Eitelhuber once again for the amazing amount of effort he's put in to the programme - it looks fantastic! Well done, Tom.

See you all at the con!

Michael Dawson
Convenor, SwanCon 32

Elizabeth Moon - Biography

Elizabeth Moon is an American science fiction and fantasy author, living in Florence, Texas. She obtained a Bachelor's degree in History before rising to the rank of 1st Lieutenant in the US Marine Corps. She later obtained a B.A. in Biology, and is also an experienced paramedic.

Elizabeth's first attempt at a book was a biography of the family dog, written at age six. Although a failure, she continued to write interestingly. Her first fiction sales began at age forty, with Bargains to Marion Zimmer Bradley's Sword & Sorceress III and ABC's in Zero G to Analog. These both appeared in the summer of 1986.

In 1987 Elizabeth sold her first novel, Sheepfarmer's Daughter. It came out the following year, and in 1989 won the Compton Crook Award. Since then, the total has risen to 18 novels, including two co-authored with Anne McCaffrey in her Planet Pirate series, omnibus editions of several series, two short-fiction collections and several dozen works of short fiction.

Elizabeth's most recent releases include Judgment in The Dragon Quintet and Gifts in Masters of Fantasy. In 1997, her novel Remnant Population was nominated for a Hugo, and The Speed of Dark was a finalist for the Arthur C. Clarke Award, and won the Nebula in 2004.

Her most recent book is Command Decision, the fourth in the Vatta's War series, to be released in February 2007.

David Gerrold - Biography

David Gerrold started his career as a college student, in 1966, by submitting an unsolicited story outline to Star Trek, then in the infancy of its original series. Invited to submit several premises, one was chosen, and so arguably the most popular episode of all time, The Trouble with Tribbles, was born.

As well as being responsible for many of the ideas incorporated into Star Trek: The Next Generation and authoring The World of Star Trek, a best-selling book about the birth of the phenomenon, David continued writing for many science fiction television series, including Land of the Lost, Babylon 5, Sliders, Logan's Run, Tales From The Darkside and The Twilight Zone - over a dozen shows in total!

David has also published over 40 books, some of the best known being The Man Who Folded Himself and When H.A.R.L.I.E. Was One, which was nominated for Best Novel for both the Hugo and Nebula awards. In 1995, he won the Hugo and Nebula for The Martian Child, an autobiographical tale of his son's adoption.

David is the author of the Star Wolf series of novels, as well as the War Against the Chtorr series. With four parts released so far, he is currently writing the fifth. His most recent novel is Blood and Fire, published in 2004. Currently, David lives in Northridge, California with his son Sean, four neurotic dogs, and two snotty cats.

Matthew Reilly - Biography

At 31, Matthew Reilly is the international bestselling author of eight books including Ice Station, Temple, Contest, Area 7, Scarecrow and the children's book Hover Car Racer. His books are published in 20 countries in 18 languages, and he has sold over 2 million books worldwide.

Walt Disney Pictures recently optioned the movie rights to Hover Car Racer, while the book was still in manuscript form. 2005 saw the release of not one but two of his books: Hell Island, a novella written specifically for the Australian Government's 'Books Alive' initiative, and the epic adventure Seven Ancient Wonders, which went on to become the bestselling book by an Australian in 2005.

Reilly owns and drives a Delorean, one of only a few in Australia. He also owns a life-size replica of Han Solo, encased in carbonite.

Russell B. Farr - Biography

Russell was born in Perth and now lives in Northam, Western Australia. From 1996 to 1999 he ran Ticonderoga Publications, publishing six books by writers including Howard Waldrop, Steven Utley, Stephen Dedman, Sean Williams and Simon Brown.

In 1999 he founded the online journal TiconderogaOnline. Following a six-year hiatus, he resurrected Ticonderoga Publications in late 2005, announcing several new titles and a long-awaited collection, Troy, by Simon Brown.

Russell made his first fiction sale to Vision Magazine in 2003. He has authored over 100 stories, articles, reviews and essays, in amateur publications in Australia, the US and Norway. From 2000 to 2004 he edited the fanzine No Award. Russell is also an Associate Editor of Science Fiction: A review of speculative literature. In 2000 he was a Convenor of the Aurealis Awards, and judged the Katherine Susannah Pritchard SF Short Story Award in 2003.

Art Show

It's time again to show your artistic flair! The SwanCon 32: Inconceivable Art Show will be taking place on Friday 6th April, with the Art Show Auction on Saturday morning.

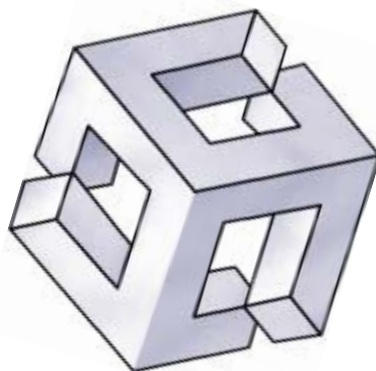

If you want a guaranteed place in the art show, you need to register by emailing artshow@swancon.com with the following details:

- 1) Your name.
- 2) The name of your piece.
- 3) The format of piece (painting, sculpture, etc).
- 4) The dimensions of your piece.
- 5) The piece's mounting requirements.
- 6) Whether the piece is up for auction, and the minimum bid amount.
- 7) Any other important info about your submission, such as care/handling instructions or suitability for viewing by minors, please let us know.

There is a $2 submission fee for each piece, and a maximum of 20 submissions per artist.

Pieces will be collected at the con on the afternoon and evening of Thursday the 5th of April. The show itself will be on Friday, and the art auction on Saturday morning. If you are unable to drop your art off on the Thursday, please let us know in advance and we'll try to make alternate collection arrangements.

We are also looking for volunteers to fill a one to three hour spot looking after the art show during the time it is open. If you'd like to volunteer please send your contact details to artshow@swancon.com.

SwanCon Auction

The annual SwanCon Auction is on again! The auction will be held during the convention on Sunday the 8th of April, from 2:00 PM in the Oshanesii room. Come along to buy all the fannish paraphernalia you could possibly need, and more!

Got some stuff that you no longer want, but that could be of great value to a fellow fan? We are currently accepting items for the auction. Items can be dropped off via prior arrangement at the following times:

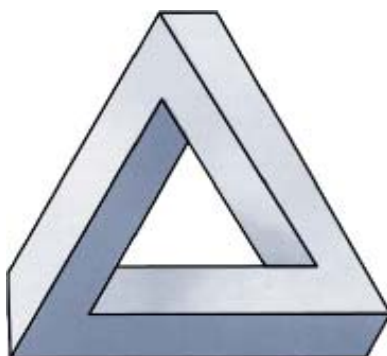

Monday 26th March, 4-7pm
Thursday 29th March, 4-7pm
Monday 2nd April, 4-7pm

Please email tommo@ucc.asn.au to arrange item collection. Ensure all items are labeled clearly, as the committee take no responsibility for mix-ups. Be sure to include the following information:

- 1) Your full name
- 2) Your phone number and any other contact information
- 3) The item's reserve price (if applicable)

If you're entering a large number of items into the auction, it would be helpful to write up a complete list of your submissions.

Happy bidding!

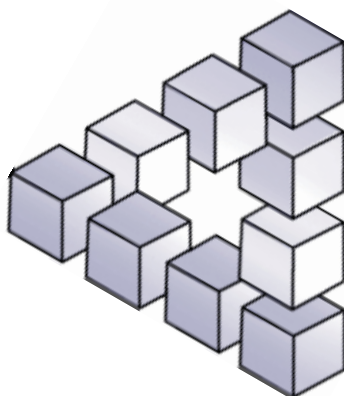

Fanvid Competition

Remember last SwanCon, when you went to a vidding panel, caught a nap in the video stream, or watched the closing vid, and decided “I want to do that!” Now is the time for us to ask “Have you done it?” and for you to whistle quietly and look shifty.

Never fear! There is still time to get started on a video competition entry so fantastic and wonderful that it will make Tarantino weep tears of blood and Spielberg give up the director’s chair for good.

There are several categories where you can release your vid to take on all comers, Pokemon-style. We have the Rarities, for vids featuring those shows or characters who never get as much attention in fandom as you’d like. We have the Romantics for all you cuddle-bunnies and slashers out there to prove that the subtext is really text! The Experimental category is for those of you who like to stretch your vidding muscles (and maybe mess with our heads at the same time). Storytellers is the category for those who like to make vids showing us something about your favourite character or show. And debuting this year is the Challenge category. These are vids that in some way meet, define or exemplify the idea of ‘Inconceivable!’ All videos will also automatically be entered into General competition.

Full details and rules are available at <http://www.swancon.com/>
So get vidding!
